The City Election

An [illegible] will be held [illegible] Monday in this city [illegible] h W d Republ [illegible] heal [illegible] nominations have [illegible] citizen [illegible] but the election should [illegible] ar [illegible] taken [illegible] men [illegible] not play [illegible] of the Police Ring and pay [illegible] al po [illegible] A general [illegible] rebels [illegible] others like [illegible] only for [illegible] own Rep [illegible] Council [illegible] pend [illegible] Republicans are [illegible] they [illegible] Police Ring.

The San Juan Boundary Question

Washington dispatches say that the Government has very full advices from Minister Bancroft concerning the arguments and evidence laid before the Emperor of Germany in relation to the San Juan boundary. The American case makes thirty-two quarto pages with an appendix of about fifty. The English case contains about the same amount of matter including the appendix. Both have elaborately prepared maps and [illegible] the documents accompanying the English case are copies of the Fremont map of Oregon and California of 1848 in which in fixing the line the boundary was drawn [illegible] now claimed by the English. No attention is called to this map in the first case, but it is evidently to be used in the counter case. Mr Bancroft has however been furnished with statements from Generals Fremont and Preuss who drew the map showing conclusively that it is of no authority whatever upon the question involved. The English are not thought at Berlin to feel that their case is a strong one. Mr Bancroft in his instruction to the case observes that of all the persons who had anything to do with the treaty of 1846 he alone survives and he has been commissioned by his country to explain to the Emperor of Germany as arbitrator the solid foundation on which the United States bases its claim. In his argument Mr Bancroft maintains that the language of the treaty taken as a whole admits of no other than the American interpretation and the words of the description of the two channels, considered collectively establish the American interpretation and exclude every other. On the parallel of the boundary canal De Haro is the only channel which, in the language of the treaty, separates the continent from Vancouver's Island. The British Government asks the imperial arbitrator to find as the channel of the treaty the Straits of Rosario for which in January 1848, they had no name and no description. These so called straits are not straits at all and on British maps never bore a name till after the British Government introduced the new interpretation of the treaty of 1846. The channel of Rosario Straits does not even lead to Fuca Straits when followed from a point where a parallel of the boundary strikes it and could not possibly fulfil the terms of the treaty. Mr Bancroft shows conclusively that the understanding of our commissioners was that the treaty fixed the boundary as we now claim it, and closes with showing that the present English interpretation would fix upon the commissioners of that nation an attempt to deceive and dupe Americans, and establish the fact that the latter were duped, whereas the American interpretation would impute only an honorable course to the British commissioners, and relieve them from the suspicion of desiring to dupe and Americans from the position of having been duped. Our authorities feel confident of a decision in our favor, and unless serious trouble should follow the possible failure of the Geneva Conference the decision of the San Juan question may still be reached, although for the present the Alabama claims fail.

Concerning "Honest Differences of Opinion"

Our castigation of the Herald for its unscrupulous, inconsistent splenetic and malignant course in regard to the railroad enterprises of Oregon has produced a whining, snivelling response from that paper, the burden of which is that its opinions are "honest," and it is really outrageous to censure it therefor. It wants to know when it became criminal for an honest man to differ from us in opinion, and who gave us the right to attack other people's motives for such honest difference of opinion? Now the editor of the Herald has published two contradictory and variant opinions in regard to important measures of public economy affecting this State. Before the election he declared that in order to prevent the railroads from making money too fast and swallowing the wealth of the whole State a Legislature must be chosen which would reduce the rates of transportation. He now declares that railroads here cannot pay even running expenses, advises those who hold the bonds of these roads that they have made a bad investment and discourages them from advancing any more money on Oregon railway securities. The first of these opinions was promulgated as an electioneering trick in the hope that it would aid in securing a Democratic Legislature. People were to be persuaded that the railroads were making money too fast and that legislation must be had to reduce their profits. The second opinion was a thought that came after the election. The editor of the Herald was wrathful under defeat and wanted revenge. He had ascertained that the Republican party had gained ground by its course on the railroad question. His next move was to attack in a spirit of spite and malignity the credit of these railroad enterprises in the hope to obtain revenge for the Democratic defeat. With this object in view he began to assert that these railroads would fail, that the country hadn't resources to sustain them, that they were losing money very fast and could make no money for many years and that the whole present effort to establish these enterprises in our State would end in disastrous failure. Here as before remarked were two sets of opinions exactly in opposition to each other. When the "Col" of the Herald shall inform us which of these opposing and contradictory opinions to which he has given utterance is the honest one we shall then give him as much credit as possible for the honesty which he so loudly vaunts. But until he does so we must suspend our judgment. We can [illegible] him for any honest difference of opinion on his part with us. But when he differs so radically with himself we want to know if such difference is "honest" and which of his opposing opinions is the honest and which the dishonest one. The "Col" [illegible] thus because he seems to court [illegible] we can clear up these little points [illegible] [illegible] sure.

A Record for a Democratic Candidate

The New York Evening Post was an [illegible] and influential advocate of the Cincinnati Convention. But it was [illegible] Greeley's nomination and has not hesitated to say so plainly. In a recent issue it expresses its opinions:

Singular as it may appear it is nevertheless one that the [illegible] [illegible]

General Alvord

The President has nominated and the Senate has confirmed [illegible] Alvord as Paymaster General of the United States Army. The following sketch of him which we take from the Sacramento [illegible] will be best appreciated where General Alvord is best known as in Oregon.

General Alvord's many friends [illegible] and elsewhere will be glad to learn of this deserved promotion. He graduated from West Point July 1st 1833 and entered the service in Louisiana as a brevet Second Lieutenant in the Fourth United States Infantry. He attained the rank of Second Lieutenant July 21st 183[illegible] served in the Seminole war being engaged with credit in the skirmishes of Otokikaha and [illegible] Creek in 1836 and was promoted to First Lieutenant September 23d of that year. He was on duty at the Military Academy in 1837-38-39 first as Assistant Professor of Mathematics and afterwards as Principal Assistant Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy. After some years service on the frontiers of Arkansas and in the Indian Territory he was again actively engaged in the Florida war of 1841. During the Mexican war he was First Lieutenant of the Fourth Infantry of which President Grant was then a Second Lieutenant and participated in the battles of Palo Alto, Resaca de la Palma, Cerro Gordo and other engagements. After the war he accompanied his regiment to the Pacific Coast and after a short stay at Benicia barracks in 1852 he was assigned to duty in Oregon. He superintended the construction of a military road in the southern part of Oregon in 18[illegible] and was chief paymaster of the district from June 1854 until April 186[illegible] when he was made a Brigadier General of Volunteers by President Lincoln and was assigned to the command of the District of Oregon embracing that State and Washington and Idaho Territories. The troops under his command—three regiments of California and Oregon volunteers were actively and judiciously employed in protecting the overland immigration and the frontier settlements from the Indians. To keep the rebel sympathizing element in check and at the same time to avoid an unnecessary and dangerous irritation of it was a delicate duty which the commander of the district performed with satisfaction to the country and great credit to himself. At the close of the war Gen Alvord resigned his commission as Brigadier General and resumed his duties in the pay department of the army.

As an officer of genuine merit, pure character and unswerving patriotism he has no superiors though fortune has denied him the opportunities for achieving that high distinction to which she has enabled others to attain. A sketch of his record would not be complete without mentioning the fact that he is the author of an interesting "Memoir on Tangencies of Circles and of Spheres" and also of numerous essays and reviews mostly upon mathematical subjects. While in Oregon he took an active interest in the development of the educational and material interests of the country.

The meaning of the political term Liberalism is hard to define in the present mixed condition of the movement [illegible] that name but the best definition we have yet seen given is by the B[illegible] [illegible] It says [illegible] the sive language of Scripture Liberalism [illegible]

First. All [illegible] and [illegible] speaking with all malice. And these sentiments are consolidated against President Grant personally.

Second—Liberalism is a union of all the Soreheads, malingners and vilifiers embraced in one party to put down Grant's administration.

Third—Liberalism is a union of all who are ready to join hands [illegible] falsehood and misrepresentation of Grant's official acts.

Fourth—Liberalism [illegible] compact [illegible] coming campaign with [illegible] ing Democrats of all shades [illegible] persistent rebels [illegible] the polls.

Lastly—To the end that dissension and divisions on account of principles may be avoided Liberalism is a total renunciation of all principles which have hitherto been regarded as cardinal virtues in political contests and a revocation of all political morality and decency [illegible] the coming canvass.

Into this Liberal horde anybody and everybody will be welcomed provided only that they can vote [illegible] to—everybody who can do anything to beat Grant.

The address of the Executive Committee of the Labor party of California contains some severe flings at Greeley and Brown among others. The following:

Being defeated by Davis and Parker before the Columbus Convention they hastened to the Cincinnati Convention and worked against Davis and Parker for their own promotion. They secured nominations contrary to all the rules of honesty, the faith and good conscience viz: to support the nomination of an honorable and successful competitor. Thus instead of being honest unselfish reformers, their very first public act was to set at defiance one of the best established rules of honesty in politics and proved their [illegible] for office [illegible] want of principle [illegible] and the [illegible] ment of its duties and functions if obtained.

The editor of the Hartford Post who has lately visited the South [illegible] that the [illegible] with the Republican party while the old rebels to a large extent favor Greeley. [illegible] The instinct of the black man is to vote for the party which [illegible] freedom. He [illegible] to explain the instinct which moves the old rebels to support Greeley but it is easily understood. They feel that he may enable them to break down the Republican party and give them control of the Government.

THE FIRE.—An alarm of fire was sounded from the bell attached to the Odd Fellows Temple last Saturday morning near the hour of [illegible] o'clock. The several fire companies moved with their usual celerity and promptness to the scene of the fire, which was soon discovered to exist in Capt Ankeny's brick building on the river side of Front street between Ash and Vine. The flames and dense volumes of smoke were seen to issue from the front windows of the building opposite the suite of rooms occupied by Maj Walker of the [illegible] of the Columbia and his wife. At the time, Maj Walker was not in the city and his wife and an old lady were occupying the sleeping apartment. The bedroom is situated to the rear of the parlor, and separated from it by a thin partition of wood and plaster. From appearances the fire had been burning for a long time before the occupants discovered it. A lady occupying one of the rooms in the back portion of the building, was awakened from slumber by the smoke which had forced itself into her apartment. Her first thought was to save Mrs Walker whom she knew had not yet been made aware of the existence or proximity of the fire. She hurried along the hall which was so filled with smoke that suffocation was imminent, and reached the door leading into the parlor. That was locked and being unable to arouse the inmates by violently knocking she at last was compelled to burst through the same. Mrs. Walker was found to be insensible from the effects of smoke and heat. At last by the assistance of the two ladies she was carried out of the room and down the stairway to the sidewalk. By this time the firemen had reached the grounds, and were commencing to play on the element. On examination it was found that the fire had [illegible] over nearly half the second floor, had [illegible] along between the plastering and reached the roof and charred the rafters in a number of [illegible]. After great exertions it was subdued. The damages to the building, resulting directly from the fire, are between $7 000 and $8 000. The [illegible] is insured for $15 000. Considerable [illegible] from water was sustained by the [illegible] on the first floor. Williams & Myers' loss is [illegible] at about $500, insurance $4 000, in the Phoenix Insurance Company. Janion & [illegible] loss will probably reach $3 000 but their stock is heavily insured in the Imperial Company. [illegible] & Son, in the same building, did not sustain any loss, owing to being beyond the fire. It is [illegible] that a greater portion of the second story will have to be rebuilt, and probably the roof will have to be replaced.

The origin of the fire was at first, difficult to [illegible], but on a thorough examination of the [illegible] it was decided to have emanated from the sleeping apartment of the servant girl, which [illegible] at the southern side of the parlor, and [illegible] with it by a door. A bureau, which stood near the end of the bed, was almost consumed, and other indications sufficient to lead to [illegible] that a lamp or candle had been left [illegible] on that article of furniture, and that the fire had communicated with it. The fire burned through the plastering until the laths were [illegible], and from thence it spread, without difficulty, through the building. Great credit is due the Fire Department for their noble efforts to extinguish the fire.

COOL.—For the last two days the temperature has materially moderated, with decided indications of rain soon. This change is agreeable to the feelings of every person, as its effects cannot but be beneficial. If the gentlemanly clerk who arranges the weather programme would favor us with rain, the following results would be apparent: The atmosphere would be purified and thereby decrease the probabilities of disease and sickness, the snow would melt more gradually, and the waters could not get so high, and lastly, the crops would smile and languish no longer under the reviving influences of a grateful shower. By all means, Mr Clerk, let us have rain.

PRICE OF MEAT TO COME DOWN.—By our dispatches from San Francisco it will be seen that [illegible] citizens of Boston will soon arrive here [illegible] in hunting buffalo, etc, during the [illegible] and that they expect to glut this market in that article of meat. We hope however that [illegible] will not all close their shops until [illegible] to receive the products of the expedition [illegible] by these mighty nimrods from the [illegible]. If they want to learn "what we know about hunting," let them go out with Quimby and Mossnastes of this city and we'll bet the whole forty nine would have to borrow meat from our hunters for breakfast.

PROMENADE CONCERT.—A grand concert will be given to morrow (Tuesday) evening, at the Skating Rink for the benefit of the Trinity Church Organ Fund. The East Portland band has been secured, and will furnish music for the occasion. The following is the programme: Pleasure Galop, Schubert Serenade, Lina Mazurka, Serenade (Belini), Watch on the Rhine, List to the Convent Bells, selected. Price of admission, twenty five cents. A very pleasant evening's entertainment is promised to those who [illegible].

ST. HELEN'S HALL.—The closing examinations at St. Helen's Hall will take place on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week from 9 o'clock to 3 each day. The graduating exercises, with the Bishop's address to the class will be Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The [illegible] of the pupils and the patrons of the school are respectfully invited to attend.

TRIAL TRIP.—The steamer Geo S Wright, after having been refitted from prow to stern and [illegible], made a trial trip down the river yesterday. After proceeding some distance down the Wallamet, she turned round and came back to the wharf. She is pronounced to be as rapid and staunch in all respects as when first launched.

ELECTION.—The municipal election will be held to-day in the three wards of this city for the [illegible] of a Councilman from each. An election will also be held in East Portland to day for the [illegible] of five Trustees, one Recorder, one [illegible] and one Assessor.

[illegible].—Some fellow who is afflicted with a light-fingered proclivity, was caught in the act of [illegible]ing open a trunk during the fire last Saturday [illegible]ing. He was promptly arrested by officer [illegible], and is now suffering the penalty of his offense by lying in jail.

LAST PERFORMANCE.—Dora was performed at Oro Fino Theater for the last time on Saturday evening. With that rendition closed the [illegible] brief season. The theater will not re-open until Vivian arrives which will not be for some eight or ten days yet.

RECOVERED.—At the time of the fire on Saturday morning, in Ankeny's building, Mrs Maj Walker lost several valuable diamonds in the [illegible] and panic of the moment. We learn that they have subsequently been recovered and [illegible] to the owner.

[illegible].—The Republicans of the several Wards met on last Saturday evening and placed the following gentlemen in nomination for Councilmen, to be voted for to day: First Ward, J H Fisk; Second Ward, E F Russell; Third Ward, J C Moreland.

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATES.—The following [illegible] announce themselves as Independent Candidates for Councilmen from the several wards of the city: First Ward, Geo L Story; Second Ward, Chas J Graham; Third Ward, J L Atkinson.

SHIP A. M SMALL.—The English ship Annie M. Small is now lying at the east side depot. She came up on Saturday evening from Kalama in tow of the Dixie Thompson. The Small brought up some iron for the O & C R R.

AT HALF MAST.—In respect to the memory of Charles Fuller who died a short time since in San Francisco, the flags on Columbian [illegible] Exchange [illegible] and W F & Co's express were displayed at half mast Saturday and yesterday.

NO COURT.—The city election occurring to day the Circuit Court will not convene in consequence of its being a non judicial day.

PERSONAL.—Hon Jesse Applegate of Yoncalla, Douglas county, is now in the city. He will remain for a few days.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL EXCURSION.—According to previous announcements the children of several of our city Sunday schools together with their parents and friends went on their annual picnic excursion last Saturday. A number of cars had been prepared expressly for the occasion by the Oregon Central Railroad Company by fastening substantial bannisters around the platform and shading and ornamenting them with fresh evergreens and flowers. The train stopped at Washington street at 8 o'clock A M and about [illegible] persons large and small took passage for Cornelius. The great majority of the crowd were children who seemed perfectly delighted with the arrangements and gay conversation and many peals of joyous laughter were heard along the long train as two steam engines drew the happy multitude through our streets out into the grand old forests and over the smiling plains to their destination. Arriving at Cornelius the pleasure seekers spread out into groups until the large area which had been cleared and prepared for their reception seemed alive with mirth and beauty. The grounds are just [illegible] of the town and are remarkably well adapted and carefully prepared for occasions of the sort being furnished with shady retreats ample play grounds and an abundance of clear cold water. At five o'clock in the afternoon the party started for home arriving at half past six with light hearts and joyous countenances all seemingly well pleased with the trip. Not a single accident or mishap occurred to mar the joyousness of the occasion. Much credit is due to the managers of the excursion and the [illegible] Company for the great carefulness observed and the pains taken to make all who attended comfortable and the [illegible] a happy one. Mr Turpin of the hotel at Cornelius dispensed the favors of his house in an entertaining manner to all who availed themselves of his hospitality. The whole affair was a success.

MONTGOMERY GUARD PICNIC.—This new military organization gave their first annual picnic at the East Portland Park yesterday. The day was propitious but a little too chilly to be comfortable. At an early hour the company left their armory on Washington street, and headed by the East Portland Band marched to the ferry, crossed the river, and from thence proceeded to the Park. A good portion of the day was devoted to dancing. The exercises for the several prizes were commenced about 2 o'clock. The three principal exercises were the three best jumps, in which the prize an elegant pair of gold sleeve buttons was awarded to Mr Henry Thompson; throwing a large stone for which a handsome album was awarded Maj James Lotan who was announced the victor; an animated sack race in which Johnnie Kearney was awarded one dozen photographs; throwing a sledge hammer a meerschaum pipe, won by W J Tennent; climbing a pole, a fine silk vest won by Richard Robinson; a boys sack race half dozen linen handkerchiefs, won by Henry Griffin; first ladies' race a Canary bird and cage, won by Miss Kate Sherry; second ladies race, half dozen Irish linen handkerchiefs, won by Miss Agnes Martin; wheelbarrow race, a case of choice wine, won by John Kennedy; single jump, a case of wine, presented by L. Martin & Co, won by Capt Jas McGrath; catching a greased hog a pair of pants, won by John Barnes. The best of order prevailed, and all appeared to enjoy themselves. During the day several hundred persons visited the Park. About 8 o'clock the picnic broke up and the Guard, accompanied by the Band and a large crowd, returned to the city.

DR. LINDSLEY'S CHURCH.—The church of which this divine is pastor seems to be growing in favor with the public. Dr Lindsley is always equal to the occasion and is evidently rising in favor as an instructive, earnest, and eloquent preacher. It was very gratifying to see such a fine audience as was in attendance yesterday morning; all classes of our citizens—composed of eminent lawyers, leading bankers, successful merchants and ladies of distinction and influence. The Christian poor also had their worthy representatives. The colored people contributed from their ranks to swell the number of attentive and devout worshippers. The Doctor's sermon was based on the following passage which reads: "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things as silver and gold from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers but with the precious blood of Christ as of a lamb without blemish and without spot." The sermon was every way worthy of such a grand theme in its explanations, arguments, illustrations and lessons.

MORE LIGHT.—The city journals have frequently adverted to the fact that Portland is poorly provided with that very necessary commodity to nocturnal pedestrians, belated wanderers and reporters for the morning press—light. All have more or less experienced the want of more lamps at the street corners. But the taxpayers of Portland have probably as heavy a burden to carry in that direction as would be just to impose. We do not clamor for more lamps, but we do put in our most solemn protest against the practice of not lighting at all the street lamps when there are neither moon nor stars to relieve the inky firmament and the murky clouds render everything below as dark as Erebus. Last Thursday and Friday nights will serve as an illustration. It was a dark night and there was not a single lamp lighted on either front or back streets. We do not know or care at whose particular door the blame rests. It is a matter in which the public are interested, and as far as possible, ought to be remedied. People pay taxes and they want light when it is needed.

SAILING.—The smooth bosom of the tranquil Wallamet was ruffled yesterday evening by some half dozen little sailing crafts, which were scudding before the breeze in all directions. A number of ladies and gentlemen were observed seated in these Webfoot gondolas and enjoying the pleasures of an evening sail. Some of these little boats were sailing under a heavy press of canvas and several times we were fearful as the sails dipped the waters and the keel was on its beam's ends that an item under the heading of "Capsized," or probably an accident of far more serious consequences, would have to be chronicled.

INGENIOUS.—Some of the exchanges are suggesting to the citizens of this city the precaution of attaching chains and padlocks to their doors as security against the intrusions of burglars. That mode may be very effective but we have heard of a new style of thief catching drawers which for utility and simplicity of construction cannot be surpassed. It consists simply of two drawers, one false, sliding out when unacquainted with the secret, attempts to open the other subject to a secret spring known only to the owner. This triumph of ingenuity should recommend itself to public confidence and favor at once.

RAIN NEEDED.—A gentleman who has just returned from a visit through the agricultural districts of the valley informs us that in every section of the country, the crops are suffering severely for the want of rain. Considering this drawback from every portion of the cultivated districts we hear of good crops with but few exceptions and these only in low lands where standing water has prevented an early sowing or [illegible] the dry weather effects more seriously. A few timely showers would be of great benefit to the maturing crops and very materially increase the yield.

RECOGNIZED.—It is a gratifying fact to Oregon farmers to know that the journals and people of California have at length been compelled in a measure to recognize the products of this State in their markets. The California Farmer published at San Francisco of the 6th inst says:

It should be remembered that Oregon is a large competitor in this market with her wheat and flour. A large amount of flour and grain is now on the way to this port from Oregon; these accessions to our market will be large this year as the crops in Oregon will be universally great.

FIRST COMMUNION AND CONFIRMATION.—On Sunday, June 23d inst the children of the Cathedral parish who have been found sufficiently instructed to approach the Holy Table will make their first communion at eight o'clock Mass. At the half past ten o'clock Mass his Grace most Rev F N Blanchet D D will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to a number of children now under instruction for the reception of the same.—[illegible]

AR[illegible].—The steamship John L Stephens reached port from San Francisco on last Saturday evening with a number of passengers and a large cargo of assorted merchandise but [illegible].

The Rev [illegible] Mrs A J Dufur [illegible] will return to this state by the first of next month [illegible] the [illegible] first she was [illegible] and was announced to lecture here.

The Republican voters of the First Ward of the city of Portland, Multnomah county, Oregon, met at Goodnough & Tribou's carpenter shop, First and B streets, on Saturday June 15 1872 at 8 o'clock P M for the purpose of nominating a Councilman for said Ward.

The meeting was called to order and D J Malarky chosen Chairman and J H Norris appointed Secretary.

J H Fisk was placed in nomination, and on motion was nominated as the Republican candidate for Councilman for that Ward by acclamation.

E Wicks, G V James and C Mills were elected Ward Committee.

On motion adjourned.

DE[illegible] FORFEITED.—The bonds of William and Maggie Marshall were declared forfeited in the Circuit Court Saturday morning, the defendants failing to answer when called for.

A CARD

Having learned that a ring of Dolly Vardens are circulating a report that I will not, if elected Councilman, vote or work for the interests of the Third Ward, I take this method to say: I am in favor of and stand pledged to support all improvements that can be made in that Ward in whatever shape they may come up for action, and especially am I in favor of and will support with all my ability the location of the proposed bridge across the Wallamette at some point in the city south of Madison street. All my interests are in the Third Ward, where I have lived most of the time for the past twelve years and where I own a residence—statements to the contrary notwithstanding. If the voters of this Ward see fit to elect me to the office of Councilman I expect and will use every effort in my power to advance the interests of that Ward.

J C MORELAND

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF

Messrs DeLashmutt, Oatman & Co inform us that in the past six months they have disposed of about one hundred and seventy five of their [illegible] Homes adjoining East Portland. They are offering the greatest inducements to parties of small means that have ever been offered in this or any other community. They are selling good arable land situated on a level platform one hundred feet above and commanding a good view of the city and not more than three and one half miles east of its very center for from $50 to $100 per acre. When we call to mind the experience of some of our townsmen we become convinced that this is certainly a very rare opportunity for speculation. One of our acquaintances arrived in this city about ten years ago penniless. He took a job cutting brush for Uncle Jimmy Stevens on the ground where East Portland now stands, taking his pay in land. He thus earned [illegible] which he paid for in one summer with his own labor and to day he could realize $15 000 for it. This is only one out of a score of cases where men have amassed handsome little fortunes off of lands in and around this city which cost them virtually nothing and in fact we would ask how many men have become very wealthy in this city except they did it through real estate? [illegible] H T Stewart many years ago sold a very fine property in the heart of New York city and invested the money in a large tract of suburban land. A few years subsequent the gentleman who purchased Stewart's property sold it at an advance of four hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Stewart's friends twitted him of his financial mistake in disposing of his property at the time he did. He informed them that he had realized a net profit of over $1 000 000 on his suburban investment and still had a good portion of it left. It certainly stands to reason that if a block 200 feet square in our business center is worth from $200 000 to $[illegible] [illegible] or acre three miles distant ought to be worth $[illegible]. If Portland is to be a great metropolis [illegible] of Oregon is to follow the footsteps of every old settled State in the Union, if the tide of immigration is still to continue to this the [illegible] of them all, if capital is to seek investments here where everything is awaiting it, and Oregon is to have a metropolis only equal to the smallest [illegible] her older sisters, if we are to have a city of $100 000 inhabitants (and where is there an old settled State in the Union that has not a city with at least this number) if in short this is to be a commercial center, street cars will run [illegible] in every direction from the city's center [illegible] both and double this distance. And it will be that a five acre tract which can now be had for $[illegible] will be worth more money than we would dare to conjecture at this time. One look at the vast and rugged mountains on the west [illegible] is sufficient to convince any one that Portland can go no further in that direction and consequently she must do all her spreading to the east north and south and acquire a length and breadth of many miles, thus taking in not only all the land that Messrs DeLashmutt & Oatman have sold off in small tracts but very many more, some of which they are now offering on very reasonable terms. $25 down on five acres is all the ready money that is required—remainder in monthly installments of $10 to $20 per month. Office address No 72 Front street Portland Oregon.

It is [illegible] understood that Judge W[illegible] has [illegible] to C[illegible] the [illegible] attention of [illegible] will take up with the [illegible]. But [illegible] [illegible] that they [illegible] [illegible]

PROSPECTUS.

THE THROUGH LINE!

A RAILROAD JOURNAL, TO BE PUBLISHED weekly in the city of Portland Oregon devoted to the interests of railroads and kindred subjects, and especially to the success of the

Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad

In the interest of this road we have already made one campaign which is against great odds our efforts have been crowned with a fair measure of success. It is now a fixed fact recognized by the Government and becoming attractive to men of capital and influence.

With the issue of this prospect we enter upon a second campaign in which the friends of the great work will find it profitable to be united firm and persistent.

We shall early [illegible] the subject of legitimate and reasonable State aid in the prosecution of the work and as an endorsement of the importance of this deservedly popular enterprise.

Preparatory to a renewal of our efforts at the next session of Congress we shall fully discuss the national and local importance of the Portland Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad and through the instrumentality of The Through Line familiarize members of Congress and the American public with the subject in all its bearings. The discussion will cover the whole ground and no fact or matter of any importance will be [illegible].

[illegible] The Through Line [illegible] especially [illegible] that [illegible] the sentiment in Oregon everywhere manifested in behalf of the Portland Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad.

The knowledge of the several roads embraced in this system, their origin and progress, the various laws that have been passed concerning them, and the country through which they pass will enable us to give from time to time [illegible] American and European readers [illegible] reliable [illegible] connected therewith.

Our friends [illegible] especially vigilant in getting subscribers [illegible] The Through Line a wide circulation. We have made arrangements for its publication and [illegible] a competent assistant in the Editorial Department. It will be a twenty column paper and the first number will be issued on or about the 20th of June inst. Subscription $[illegible] per annum.

Old Men's Grant Meeting.

BY JOHN H. HAYES.

Well, wife, we've had a meetin' at the school-house on the hill,
And I was chosen chairman to keep the old men still,
But I found I couldn't d[illegible] would plant,
And shout with all the [illegible] for Grant.

We talked about [illegible] at things
[illegible]
How the nat[illegible] before the sun.
We said to keep it [illegible]
Than to stick and hang [illegible] for Grant.

We all look'd [illegible] facts
Then drew the [illegible]
We said, "We [illegible] Sumner, but [illegible] we can't."
Then made the [illegible] for Grant.

We didn't have much [illegible]
They stand around [illegible] cure,
Their speeches [illegible] their ears,
He's an old [illegible] back.

We talked about Grant's [illegible] sin,
To vote that out of office we might vote a worse [illegible]
And seein' we were smokers, 'twouldn't [illegible] rant,
So we lit our pipes together and smoked the health of Grant.

In the days of the rebellion [illegible] fight,
But we read from morn [illegible] the right,
He has been the nation's servant in the days of peace and war,
And treason melts before him like the smoke from his cigar;

After I'd adjourned the meetin' I gave each the friendly grip,
We, every one, determined to stand by the war [illegible] ship;
We will not topple over, we will not even slant,
But put our canes down firm and strong, and stand up straight for Grant.

Comfort for Trembling Souls.

[From the Salem Statesman.]

Doubtless many good people have been led by Democratic declamation to fear that sundry schemes, injurious to the State, and in the interest of Ben Holladay, will be proposed and probably passed at the coming session of the Legislature. It has been asserted over and over again that a Republican majority in that body would meet simply to record Holladay's will. This was electioneering clap-trap, furnished by litigant editors and their liege lord, Gov. Grover. If any have been misled by it, they have only to wait in patience to have their minds disabused. In the first place, no legislation can be enacted which would be of any service whatever to Mr. Holladay or his railroads. Not a single measure can be proposed or devised which would benefit him or them in the slightest degree. And we here put on record, and ask readers to mark the sequel, that no measure in the interest of Mr. Holladay or his railroads will pass the Legislature. Mr. Holladay has nothing to ask of that body. And in the second place, the Republican majority in the Legislature is composed of men who represent the interests of the State. Better material was never sent to a legislature. These men will act with a view to promoting the progress and prosperity of the State, and from convictions of duty to their constituents and themselves. They cannot be "run" in any special interest. But while they propose no legislation for the benefit of Mr. Holladay, (who asks nothing of the kind) we hazard nothing in saying that they will not allow the great interests and enterprises which he represents to be harassed and fettered by narrow and unfriendly legislation. They will take no stock in the Democratic onslaught upon the most important industrial and commercial enterprises of the State. Liberal policy, regulated by justice, and by a regard for the State's highest interests, is the motto of the Republican party; and a Republican Legislature will pursue that policy as the one demanded by an enlightened public judgment. That judgment can have no sympathy with the narrow, proscriptive, partisan, spiteful and rancorous course of the Democracy, as reflected by their chief organ, the Portland Herald. The course of that paper, and of those who encourage it, resembles a schoolboy's spite and malignity.

Garrison to Sumner.

WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON SHARPLY REBUKES CHARLES SUMNER.

BOSTON, Mass., June 3d.—The following letter from William Lloyd Garrison, the veteran abolitionist and reformer, appeared in print here to-day:

ROXBURY, Mass., June 1, 1872.

Dear Mr. Sumner: I owe it to you to say with all the frankness which sober friendship justifies, that I have carefully read your speech in sharp arraignment of the President, and my conviction is that it is ill-judged, ill-timed, and so extravagant in its charges and bitter in its personalities, as to neutralize whatever just criticism can be found in it. It will assuredly serve the purpose of the worst foes the cause of impartial freedom has to fear. Very many of them are now rallying under the banner of Liberal Republicanism, but the loyal, liberty-upholding party with which you have hitherto been identified will peruse it with deep regret, if not with unfeigned astonishment. Certainly you do not represent Massachusetts in this sweeping impeachment. Her Republican people are almost a unit for the re-election of the men whom you attempt to stain with crime and cover with infamy. You cannot separate General Grant from the party which put him in the Presidential chair, and which means to keep him in it if possible another term, being satisfied as to his ability, integrity and patriotism; and, therefore, in stigmatizing him as a venal self-seeker and an unscrupulous usurper, you virtually pronounce it to be equally corrupt and untrustworthy. This you have a right to do on your own responsibility, if you must, but in so doing you will find yourself for the first time in marked opposition to the sentiments of Massachusetts as its Senator in Congress, and surrounded by allies who have been heretofore your deadliest enemies. Occupying as I do, an outside position, I write this not under party ties, and only because I feel constrained in this manner to free my mind as proof of my friendship. Receive it in the spirit which has dictated it. Faithfully and regretfully yours,

WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON.

To Hon. Charles Sumner.

The Accusing Angel.

[From the Eugene Guard.]

Several months ago a family left this county for California and settled in Shasta valley, Siskiyou county. They had a daughter, who was about eighteen years of age and possessed of more than the ordinary amount of personal beauty. Near Yreka lives an old bachelor, who has neared fifty winters and as yet no fair woman graces his lonely domicil. He saw the young lady and having obtained an introduction, he concluded to pay her a visit, with intentions not only honorable, but serious. Accordingly he visited the house about 3 P. M. on a bright day in April, while the apple trees were shedding their vernal snow of blossoms. After an hour of pleasant conversation the angel of the household (for her parents were away from home) concluded to get supper for her adorer. The only thing about the place that she could find was an old hen with two small chickens. The parent Biddy was decapitated instantly and dissected for the frying pan. The young lady and her guest made a very hearty meal, when her little brother, an enfant terrible of a dozen summers, came home with the cows. He sat up by the table and swallowed a few hasty mouthfuls, then the fair Angelina suggested an adjournment to the front porch. Accordingly she and Celebs went out and sat 'neath the woodbine shade, where they chatted away till the boy came out. The two motherless chicks kept chirping away beneath the porch, till at last the boy, with menacing form like that of the accusing angel, exclaimed: "You needn't cheep, cheep at me. I ain't to blame for it. There's the son of a gun that ate your mother."

FEARFUL MINING ACCIDENT.—About 4 o'clock last Thursday afternoon the miners at work in the Mahogany were startled by a tremendous explosion which extinguished the lights in the mine and shook the ground like an earthquake. Upon investigation it was found that a man named Ole Anderson was nearly dead at the windlass of the 5th level mine. From what information we can obtain, it appears that Anderson, who was working the windlass, inadvertently dropped a candle snuff into a box in which there were six or seven giant powder cartridges, together with a quantity of fuse and caps, and then sat down upon the box. A terrific explosion ensued, which threw him a distance of several feet, mangling, lacerating and stripping the flesh from the lower part of the body and limbs in a most fearful manner, although fortunately no bones were broken. The unfortunate man was found in an insensible condition, but the wonder is, that he was not killed outright. He is now at [illegible]'s boarding house, under the care [illegible] of physician [illegible] to recover, although he will be disabled for a long time. The effect of the explosion was such that it [illegible] twisted like reeds the windlass [illegible] diameter, and knocked men down who were seventy feet distant. The lights being extinguished, and the mine filled with smoke and the fumes of the powder, there was great consternation for several minutes among the miners. [illegible]

Grant's Letter of Acceptance.

The following is President Grant's reply to the letter notifying him of his nomination and asking his acceptance:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
Washington, June 10.

To the Hon. Thomas Settle, President of the National Republican Convention, Paul Strobach and others, Vice Presidents—Gentlemen: Your letter of this date, advising me of the action of the Convention held at Philadelphia on the 5th and 6th of this month, and of my unanimous nomination for the Presidency by it, is received. I accept the nomination, and through you return my heartfelt thanks to your constituents for this mark of their confidence and support. If elected in November and protected by a kind Providence in health and strength to perform the duties of the high trust conferred, I promise the same zeal and devotion to the good of the whole people for the future of my official life as shown in the past. Past experience may guide me in avoiding mistakes, inevitable with novices in all professions and in all occupations. When relieved from the responsibilities of my present trust by the election of a successor, whether it be at the end of this term or next, I hope to leave to him as Executive, a country at peace within its own borders, at peace with outside nations, with a credit at home and abroad, and without embarrassing questions to threaten its future prosperity. With the expression of a desire to see the speedy healing of all bitterness of feeling between sections, parties, or races of citizens, and the time when the title of "citizen" carries all the protection and privilege to the humblest that it does to the most exalted, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

(Signed) U. S. GRANT.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SATURDAY EVENING, June 15, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 114¼.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 87½c buying; 88½c selling.

Wheat in Liverpool 12s 9d@13s.

Our crop prospects, except for late-sown grain, are excellent, and were never better. The present cool weather is a great advantage. Fields sown late will not yield well unless rain falls, and this is not probable. But nothing is hazarded in saying that the surplus of the present year will much exceed that of any former one.

The Hay crop will not be as large as it should be, chiefly because too little attention is paid to the preparation and management of meadow land. Two-thirds of the meadow land of the State ought to be plowed up, cultivated, and seeded again.

Many parts of Oregon are well adapted to the culture of Hops, and the crop is a profitable one. Reports from the East state that the prospects of the Hop crop there are unfavorable. An advance of prices is expected. Much money might be made by our farmers if they would devote some attention to the growth of a diversity of small products.

Bags and Bagging are very high. It is believed that there is a "ring" of speculators in San Francisco, who are operating to monopolize these articles of prime necessity, and to put up prices to suit themselves at the cost of the farmers.

The Call says that the different Farmers' Clubs are now in correspondence with each other, to elicit information that will enable them to agree upon some general plan of action. They are determined to resist the high prices charged for sacks in San Francisco, which are said to be the result of a combination, and believe by co-operative effort that they can have them put down here from the East on very reasonable terms.

In New York, on the 1st inst., Jute bags were quoted as dull and nominal at 15½@16¼. The stocks on hand exceeded those of 1871 at the corresponding date.

Coal mining on Coos Bay is now more prosperous than at any time for several years. The Eastport Company has declared a dividend of one per cent, payable immediately.

The San Francisco Alta of the 12th says:

The shipments of Gold from New York continue large. For the week ending Saturday the amount was $3,790,000, and for the previous week $4,243,664, making for the four weeks ending June 8th $15,408,149. Nearly all of this was in coin, and is caused by the large amount of goods imported. The treasure in the U. S. Treasury appears to be running unusually low, if we may trust the telegraph, which states the balances in the Treasury, June 8th, were—Currency, $5,557,732, coin, $87,399,758, including $25,820,000 in certificates. This would give but $61,[illegible] belonging to the Government, of which $25,000,000 is due on interest July 1. The Treasury continues [illegible] sell Gold, and for the last $2,000,000 offered $4,250,000 was bid, showing the activity of the demand at present rates.

For eleven months ending June 1st the Wheat exports of California aggregated 2,141,500 centals, against 4,141,300 centals for the same time in the previous harvest year.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REME[illegible]

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs [illegible] fully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San F[illegible], where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with [illegible] facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, sallow and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering from any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies [illegible] they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many QUACK doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from E[illegible] and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these [illegible]tans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific [illegible] measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the faces, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night [illegible], monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and safe mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicine promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in [illegible] letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pret[illegible] who, with bogus sworn certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are impostors, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he promises to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post office box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Cure Warranted.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oreg[illegible]

VOORHEES' SPEE[illegible]

[illegible]

At [illegible] Haute on the [illegible]
Voorhees, in accordance with [illegible] nouncement addressed a large [illegible]
this city on the political issue[illegible]
He was received with much [illegible]
by the people, and spoke substa[illegible]
lows:

I thank a kind Providence th[illegible]
me in the midst of my neighb[illegible] face to face with them. I am [illegible] speak for myself. I thank you [illegible] warm affection with which y[illegible] comed me home now, as heretof[illegible]
there is one spot of clear sky, [illegible] stars of good omen are shin[illegible] heads. One of the highest du[illegible] presentative is to render an a[illegible] official conduct to those whose s[illegible] vant he is. This obligation I [illegible] met in the past, and I am here [illegible] to-night. I believe in the w[illegible] power of the people, and if I [illegible] or deceived them let them cond[illegible] out hesitation and without mer[illegible] other hand, I have been faithfu[illegible]
ciples on which you have el[illegible] times to Congress, I know that [illegible]
peal to you in vain to stand by [illegible] uphold the cause which is yo[illegible] mine. I do not speak as a ca[illegible] for your suffrages either now [illegible]
but rather as one who cherishes [illegible] and confidence as above all pr[illegible] will defend his rights to them u[illegible]
cumstances, and to the utmo[illegible]
For nearly ten years I have [illegible]
noble, brave, intelligent con[illegible] have been sustained by you in [illegible] in storm, because I distinctly s[illegible] firmly adhered to certain princip[illegible] ment which I thought to be r[illegible]
posed others which I thought [illegible]
The Democracy of this distric[illegible] me on these questions or they w[illegible] voted for me. A man in publi[illegible] by the principles he advocates, [illegible]
he has devoted his life. If my [illegible] have become personally attache[illegible] because of the consistent record [illegible] in accordance with their own sol[illegible]
scientious convictions of righ[illegible]
This is the only true and firm [illegible]
cord and sympathy between a [illegible]
and honored people and their R[illegible]
You and I have been united [illegible] and hence we have been united [illegible] nation.

HE IS CONSISTENT IN HIS PLE[illegible]

Democrats of Vigo county, [illegible]
the Sixth District, with whom I [illegible] struggled against heavy odds [illegible] weary toil to hard-won victories [illegible]
we last met, by word or act, bee[illegible]
high trusts you have placed i[illegible]
That is the question I am her[illegible] and in making that answer I [illegible]
epithet nor abuse to hurl at my [illegible]
I have the advantage of them i[illegible]
my position, and consequently [illegible] better than theirs. They, who [illegible] being in the wrong, always go [illegible] and destitute of argument they [illegible] to denunciation and slander. [illegible] putations that have cast upon [illegible] regard to my recent speech [illegible] against the nomination of Mr. G[illegible] Democratic party, they will rec[illegible] from me. They need none he[illegible] whole tenor of my life will no[illegible] asperations, no word will here. [illegible] since adopted as a maxim that [illegible] cannot be killed except by his [illegible]
he is in reality free from blam[illegible] vindicated. Calumnies may fo[illegible] ing be heaped upon him, but he [illegible] them if his conscience is pure. [illegible] less falsehoods, therefore, that h[illegible]
ed at me in this connection wil[illegible] be forgotten.

DEMOCRATIC VIEW OF THE CINCI[illegible]
TION.

Again, however, I ask the D[illegible]
Conservatives of this district, w[illegible]
tofore supported me upon prin[illegible]
I have justly forfeited their con[illegible] course I have taken in regard [illegible]
nal nomination at Baltimore. [illegible]
the facts and survey the polit[illegible] candid spirit—candid with ou[illegible] and candid with each other. V[illegible] erable number of Republican[illegible] with the present administrati[illegible] an independent movement and [illegible] cinnati Convention, it was mo[illegible]
the Democratic party should w[illegible] interest a proceeding so likely [illegible] overthrow the party in power [illegible] hoped, as I did most sincerely, [illegible]
vention might have wisdom en[illegible]
as its candidate some one who [illegible]
the liberty of citizens, whose [illegible]
the powers of the Governme[illegible]
Federal; whose attachment to [illegible] and equal taxation, whose op[illegible] absolute political and social e[illegible] white and black races, whose [illegible] interests of the laboring clas[illegible] consistent magnanimity tow[illegible] shown in his disapproval of t[illegible] rageous legislation which i[illegible] would enable us also to nom[illegible]
National Democratic Conver[illegible] combining all the elements o[illegible]
one of the worst administratio[illegible] in American history.

HOSTILITY OF THE CONVENTION [illegible]
RATIC PARTY.

This might have been done i[illegible]
Convention had been differe[illegible]
if instead of vain conceit there [illegible] sound sense, if instead of rega[illegible] cratic masses as a disorgani[illegible] to fall in with and follow any [illegible] came marching by they ha[illegible] them as they are, the truest, [illegible] most conscientious voting [illegible] earth, tried in fires seven time[illegible] past, facing persecution and d[illegible] office, place or favor, but to [illegible] was within them. Was there [illegible] ception of the character of De[illegible] at Cincinnati by the men wh[illegible] your votes. On the contrary, [illegible] face of a Democrat in the c[illegible] was regarded by the managers [illegible] tion as an insult, and he w[illegible] with boots and cries, as a spe[illegible] have been of old from an asse[illegible] Jews. Every suggestion h[illegible] or respectfully made by Demo[illegible] for a basis for the overthro[illegible] dynasty was received from w[illegible]
disgust as if it contained th[illegible]
[illegible]. Who will deny [illegible]
Even one of the most distingui[illegible]
who was himself before th[illegible]
[illegible]
It was not essential to nom[illegible]
due to the Democratic vote [illegible]
because it was [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
and [illegible] that Convent[illegible]
to the Democratic party [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible] at my desk in the [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible] for the Presidency [illegible]
[illegible] that he or [illegible] nominated him would have [illegible]
ity to expect Democrats to su[illegible]
it and that the disciples of th[illegible]
[illegible] would turn away from the[illegible]
[illegible] met as the prophet [illegible]
